DC Lane are thrilled to present to the market a delightful historic semi detached cottage tucked away in a secluded position within central Plymstock, located within close proximity of local amenities, particularly The Broadway shopping precinct which boasts a selection of shops including Post Office, hairdressers, coffee shops, pubs and café's.

Set within a generous plot this charming property boasts rooms of good proportions and would benefit from cosmetic redecoration. Entry through the arched front door into the hallway opens into the principle reception room previously a dining room, laid with parquet flooring and features a period fireplace. This room leads into a further reception room boasting wainscoting panelling and offers direct access through to the garden. The kitchen has a selection of wall and base units and further garden access. To the first floor there are three good size bedrooms all with ceiling beams and a modern four piece bathroom with separate shower cubicle.

The front and rear gardens are mainly laid to lawn with mature trees and bushes providing privacy, relaxing in the garden within the secluded surroundings it's hard to imagine that the property is set within central Plymstock. There is gated access from the road and parking for two vehicles.

With no onward chain and natural light flooding the property throughout, this cosy cottage believed to be 17th century and Grade II listed is brimming with features and possibilities, it simply must be viewed to appreciate it's 'hidden' location and charm.
