DC Lane are delighted to present this charming property located on Boringdon Road in the picturesque waterside village of Turnchapel situated between Mount Batten and Hooe on the South West Coast Path. Situated on the fringes of Plymstock, there is easy access to major routes and Plymouth city centre can be visited by walking to nearby Mount Batten and taking the regular water taxi to the historic Barbican.

Spread across 980 sq ft and arranged over three storeys, this house offers a unique layout that adds character and charm. Opening into the principal reception room there is a period fireplace and leads into a rear lobby opening into a utility room/wc and kitchen with plentiful cabinets and rear garden access. Over the first and second floors the property boasts two lovely bedrooms, providing ample space for a small family or guests, with two shower rooms, convenience is key in this lovely home. The gated off-road parking is a convenient feature ensuring you never have to worry about parking and there is an enclosed private low maintenance walled garden with timber shed.

The historical significance of this property, being built in 1850, adds to its appeal and gives a sense of heritage. The potential for Airbnb due to its prime location in Turnchapel opens up exciting possibilities for those looking to invest in a property with dual-purpose.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to own a piece of history in this quaint waterside village with two local pubs and landing places for nautical pursuits. Adjacent to Plymouth Yacht Haven marina a short stroll from the property boasts outstanding waterside views and a viewing is highly recommended.
