DC Lane are thrilled to showcase this classic Victorian residence with stone facade occupying a prime position overlooking the tennis courts in Whiteford Road, one of the most prestigious addresses within sought after Mannamead and within easy reach of the A38, City Centre, local amenities and well placed for excellent schooling.

Tastefully curated with ideal family living and entertaining space this superb property arranged over three storeys offers spacious understated elegance and a wealth of character and original features. A stained glass door opens into the welcoming hallway featuring Amtico flooring leading into the splendid principal reception room with period fireplace, ornate cornicing and bay window. Full height connecting doors open into a grand dining room with further period fireplace. The generous kitchen breakfast room has been the hub for many parties, the granite island with 'chef's tap' over the double sink is the perfect spot for perching and sipping cocktails! With space for a large fridge freezer, wine fridge, an abundance of cabinets and room for a large dining table, there is also access to the garden and to a convenient utility room and wc. To the first floor there are three generous double bedrooms all featuring period fireplaces however in true decadence one has a roll top bath! There are two bathrooms, one with corner bath and separate shower cubicle and a more traditional with roll top bath and Victorian hand painted sanitary ware. To the second floor there are another two double bedrooms one used as a cinema room and boasting glorious elevated views to Cornwall.

The pretty rear walled garden is secluded, paved with various seating areas and full of mature bushes including fig, lemon and olive trees, a serene oasis in the city. There is a garage with remote controlled door.

We believe this decadent and comfortably appointed family home must be viewed to fully appreciate it's splendour - a truly exceptional home in an enviable location
