DC Lane are delighted to present this semi detached house in the popular location of Kings Tamerton and within easy access to the A38, excellent schooling, local transport links and amenities.

With some improvements completed and further renovation needed this lovely property provides ample space for family living. The accommodation comprises of entrance hallway, spacious lounge with double doors opening into dining room leading into the kitchen with rear storage area providing garden access and wc. To the first floor there are three bedrooms (two doubles with storage cupboards and a single) serviced by a wet room. From the rear far reaching elevated views across to Cornwall can be enjoyed.

Externally the gardens wrap around the property with a ramp providing level access into the entrance and side path leads to the enclosed rear garden, generous in size laid to lawn with paved areas and , storage shed.

This delightful family home is set within a sizeable plot and we believe it lends itself to families looking for well proportioned accommodation close to excellent schooling. With no onward chain a viewing is highly recommended.

Please note steel frame construction please take mortgage advice on lending criteria for this type of construction.
