DC Lane are thrilled to present a superb modern apartment within the popular Azure West development moments from Plymouth's historic Hoe and within easy walking distance to the City Centre. Positioned on the second floor with lift and stair access the approach is through a secure walkway surrounded by attractive communal gardens.

The accommodation is well proportioned, a large open plan living space with French doors opening onto a private decked balcony whereby views of the historic area can be enjoyed. The kitchen has integrated appliances. There are two double bedrooms; master with en-suite and a well appointed modern bathroom. Within the underground garage there is an allocated parking space. This fantastic apartment is available for occupation late January and offered part-furnished.
